A Characteristic Picture.

LOCATION—RALEIGH.

The following dialogue, as reported by one of the interlocutors, occurred a few days since on Main street:

Ex-P. G. How are you to-day, Uncle Billy?

Fat man. Tolerable, thank you—how is it with yourself, Mr. Holden? So you've been to Washington, eh? What's the news there?

Ex-P. G. Oh, we've got things all straight there, Uncle Billy. We're going to have things our own way pretty soon.

Fat Man. Why, how's that, Holden?

Ex-P. G. Well, the colored population and the poor white people, such as you and me, Uncle Billy, (leering at him,) are going to have our rights at last. But it will all be out in the Standard to-morrow. You take the Standard, don't you?

Fat Man. Why, no, not now. I used to, but haint got the money now.

Ex-P. G. Take the paper again, Uncle Billy, and I'll trust you twelve years. I'll take your note, due twelve years hence. That'll do, won't it?

Fat Man. Why, no, not adzactly. I'd rather pay you now, and not take the paper at all. I don't want it no how.

At this particular juncture of the negotiation, the Ex-P. G. turned away to shake hands with Boots, the barber, and inquiring after his health and the health of his neighbors, and of the colored population in general. Uncle Billy walked off in a titter, and told his poor neighbors how awfully distressed "Bill Holden" was about poor folks and niggers—and how he came to be so distressed, and what he expected to make by it; and Uncle Billy swore, for he is sometimes a little profane when provoked, that he did not thank Holden for putting him with niggers, nor with himself neither.

The famous Anacharsis Klootz was the friend of the human race. His heart was large, and his universal philanthropy recognized no distinctions. But Klootz was a crazy man. He was not shrewd like our ex-P. G. His heart is just large enough to embrace all who will join in making him Vicar of Bray, and no more.—He boasts of the hand he had in framing the bill of Thaddeus. In that bill the right of voting for members of the Convention to frame a new Constitution in true republican form, (as though our own Constitution was not in that form already,) is accorded only to those "who can read or write, or may own in fee real estate of the assessed value of $100 or more." This will, of course, exclude nearly all the freedmen. And it is believed here, that not many of those thus admitted to vote could be induced to vote for him. Since his return, he doubts whether the right of suffrage should be so restricted.—He now thinks it "more than probable that what is called manhood or general suffrage will be adopted," and insinuates an approval of this change of plans. He is almost decided, also, to act with the "Unionists in all our portions of the country"—(North Carolina, mind you) in extending the test oath in the act to voters as well as office holders. By these two small changes in the scheme, to which he calls "the attention of our friends in Congress," he hopes to be able to swim again. But even that will not save him. The detestation felt for this miserable ingrate is universal. W.

Union Feeling in North Carolina.

From the National Intelligencer.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 1866.

I am sorry to see native North Carolinians engaged in misrepresenting the political sentiment of the great mass of their fellow-citizens. I think I know the sentiments of the large majority of the people of North Carolina. We have extreme men on both sides, and always have had, and, no doubt, always will have. Neither represent the great majority; but either and both extremes are dangerous rulers. The present Radical agitators would be quite as dangerous as ever the extreme secessionists were, provided they were invested with the same power. I claim to have always belonged to the moderate class; fought secession to the last; and insisted on a compromise on the best terms that could be got at any and every stage of the rebellion; and I am still for the Union in its original purity. Had President Johnson's policy been adopted by Congress twelve months ago, we would to-day have been a more united people, both North and South, then we ever had been for the last forty years, and more so than we ever will be in the next fifty to come. Every day we are kept out of the Union only serves to alienate our people more and more from the Government; and, if persisted in much longer, the great body of our people will love the Union like Ireland loves England, which, sooner or later, will likely prove to be about as profitable to the Government of the United States as Ireland is to England. Such a course of policy can have no other effect, as long as human nature remains as it was from the days of Adam to the present time. The majority of Congress seem demented, unless their intentions be to alienate us forever. So long as men tax their ingenuity to invent and manifest their oppressions and hatred to a conquered people, it can but beget hatred in return. Nine-tenths of the intelligent people of the South religiously believe that the pretexts and subterfuges resorted to by Congress for the exclusion of the Southern States are intended solely to perpetuate their own power in office, and that the real cause of our exclusion is to prevent our voting in the next Presidential election and the election of Conservative men to Congress. Our conscientious belief is, that if we could give a satisfactory guaranty to Congress that we would never vote for none but Radicals for office, no further objection would be offered to restoration. We are unable to give the guaranty; hence we have no hope of restoration during the next Congress, if ever. We cannot believe that any sane man can credit the cock and bull stories respecting our loyalty. If we could believe otherwise, we would try to convince the Congress of their error; but we cannot understand how men of ordinary intelligence can be so much mistaken in relation to the true loyalty of the South as Congress pretends to be. Yours, &c.,

L. S. G.

A letter from Little Rock states that there are not over half a dozen members of the Arkansas Legislature who will vote in favor of the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment.

Professor AVERETT is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman. Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited; and additional teachers will be employed so soon as the patronage will justify it.

The Music Department will be committed to Mrs. AVERETT, who will be assisted by Mrs. ARRINGTON.

Wednesday Evening, Jan. 2, 1867.

"Persecution of Union Men."

The Legislature never did a wiser thing than when it requested the Judiciary Committee to investigate the charge made by one of its members, that Union men were persecuted in North Carolina. The only regret is that the Committee had it not in their power to push their enquiries further than they did; but this, a want of time, and the indisposition of those, who preferred the charges, to testify, when brought to the experimentum crucis,—the Book,—precluded. We believe that the investigation which was ordered by the House of Commons, at the instance of Mr. Waugh, whose record is that of a consistent Unionist, was in entire good faith, for the purposes of ascertaining the correctness of the allegations, and, if they were true, of applying the proper corrective. We re-publish the report of the Committee, which we are glad to see has already excited much attention at the North:

Mr. Davis, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"The Judiciary Committee, to which was referred a resolution instructing them to request the member from Henderson to appear before them, and furnish the facts on which he based allegations of the partial administration of justice and of the persecution of Union men, to the end that the persons or authorities guilty of such persecutions may be punished, have discharged the duty devolved on them by the resolution, and submit the following report:

Mr. Blythe, the gentleman referred to in the resolution, authorizes the Committee to say that he meant no reflection upon the Judiciary, or the courts of the State, and that he was misunderstood, if any gentleman supposed that he intended to charge or allege that there was a partial administration of justice in North Carolina, or that Union men were persecuted by the courts. There was a great deal of crimination and recrimination, and in saying that Union men had been persecuted, he merely meant to say that those in favor of the Howard Amendment had been slandered, and abused, and stigmatized as being in favor of Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality."

The Committee are well satisfied, from their own knowledge, and from their investigations, that justice is fairly and impartially administered in the Courts of North Carolina, and that no Legislation, such as is contemplated in the resolution, is necessary.

It is due to Mr. Harris, the Senator from Rutherford, to state, that at his request, and with the consent of the Committee, his testimony was withdrawn, and that he disclaimed "any connection with the charges and insinuations contained in one of the papers of this city," against the Judiciary Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
JOS. J. DAVIS,
for the Committee.

To this complexion it came. Mr. Blythe, as those who heard him originally will testify, was blatant in the declaration that Union men were persecuted in the State, while the whole tenor of his remarks led to the impression that not simply individuals or communities, but officers of the law, were the guilty agents of this maltreatment. But for the crucible of the Judiciary committee, in which Mr. Blythe's assertions were pounded and refined, we should never have had that impression corrected. As matters stand, Mr. Blythe's mountain produces a very contemptible mouse; and so thorough and inglorious was the failure to substantiate the charges and inferences, that the report of the committee, giving them the refutation direct, was unanimously adopted by the House of Commons—a body which contains such "strait acci" disciples as Blair, Jenkins, of Gaston, Ashworth, Wilson, of Perquimthe, Vestal, Teague, &c. In plain phrase, the most numerous branch of the General Assembly, without a dissenting voice, proclaims that justice is "fairly and impartially administered in the Courts of North Carolina."

Messrs. Greely, Stevens and Sumner will please make a note of that.

But Mr. Blythe, being cornered, explains what he meant by saying that Union men were persecuted, viz:—oh! most lame and impotent conclusion,—that they were stigmatized as being in favor of negro suffrage!

Messrs. Greely, Stevens and Sumner will, also, as Capt. Cuttle would say, "over-haul, and, when found, make a note" of that.

Is pro-negro suffrage, in their estimation, so frightful an offence, so infamous a crime, as that the mere imputation of it should create such a terrible hue and cry? What do they,—what can they—think of their North Carolina pets and bantlings?

But Messrs. Greely, Sumner and Stevens need not take the matter to heart. Most of these, their pets, were once fire-eaters, secessionists and violent war men. Having already changed sufficiently to ingratiate themselves in their favor, there will be no trouble as to anything further. Most of them will go negro-suffrage; they are, in fact, beginning to be clamorous for it; they are signing Memorials, side by side with their colored brethren, praying Congress to bestow it. And Mr. Blythe, when next he explains, will give some other meaning to "persecution," and it will be duly inserted in the "Red String Definer."

Anonymous Letters.

The Editor of the Standard, it seems, is much annoyed by such harmless things as anonymous letters, threatening him personally. In 1863-'4-5, if we recollect correctly, he professed to be a good deal annoyed in the same way. But so long as Z. B. Vance held the helm, there was no danger. We assure him his protection is equally secure under the administration of the noble old Roman, Jonathan Worth. These anonymous letters, however, are cowardly, boyish tricks, which no one should be guilty of. Mr. Holden is, however, such a sensationist, we should not be surprised if these missives are but the ghosts of his own guilty imagination.

EX-GOV. VANCE addressed the Agricultural and Vine-growing Association of Craven, on Monday evening last.

Municipal Schools.

In enumerating, a few days since, some of the more important measures that will claim the attention of the Legislature, when it re-assembles, we failed to mention the very meritorious Bill, introduced by Mr. Crawford, of Rowan, relative to the establishment of Common Schools in incorporated towns and cities. The bill simply empowers the various municipal authorities to levy taxes for the establishment of such public institutions,—a privilege of which, we are sure, many of our towns will gladly avail themselves. We know of no better way by which the lamentable destruction of our Common School system can, in part, be compensated for. A little economy in other departments of municipal expense will enable each town to levy a tax for the purpose indicated, without increasing the already heavy burdens of the people.

But, even if it were otherwise, who would object to being lightly taxed for an object of such exceeding importance? While the colored population are being generally educated under the auspices of the government, many of our white children, from sheer poverty, are debarred the advantages of instruction. Each community would save money, in the long run, by providing for the intellectual and moral wants of its indigent youth, and thereby preventing the growth of idleness and vice, to say nothing of the higher and better considerations that impel to such a policy. We commend the Bill to the most favorable consideration of the Senate.—It has already passed its several readings in the House of Commons.

The Holden Memorial.

The following is the memorial which Mr. Holden and friends are circulating for signatures both black and white. Whether the word white is substituted in those signed by the colored people, by black or colored, we are not prepared to say. It is, however, quite certain, that many of the colored population, who sign it, do not understand its object. It carries a falsehood on its face, by asking Congress "to establish civil government in North Carolina." We have undoubtedly had civil government, in law, and in fact for a year, commencing at the time of Gov. Worth's first inauguration.

Let our people read the memorial and let them prevent, by correct and truthful information, the false impressions that are sought to be made by the Holdenites, in circulating this memorial. Indeed, we still believe that our suggestion to get up a counter memorial, was a good one, and ought to be acted upon. By the way, we ask for information: Are not the getters up of this memorial, its circulators and signers, all liable to presentment by the Grand Juries of the State? Read the memorial:

Memorial to Congress for a Loyal Civil Government for North Carolina:

The undersigned, loyal (white) citizens of North Carolina, most respectfully and earnestly petition the Congress of the United States to pass into a law the bill introduced into the House of Representatives, on the 13th of December, 1866, by Hon. Thadeus Stevens, of Pennsylvania, to establish Civil Government in North Carolina, and to enable it to resume its former relations as one of the constituent States of the American Union; or to pass some bill similar in character, so that civil government may be speedily established on a thoroughly loyal basis, and North Carolina restored to her former place in the Union.

HOLDEN TELLS us that the people of North Carolina will either have to take the Howard amendment or Mr. Stevens' bill. Then he gives up his own bantling. God forbid that any people on earth should be forced to submit to such an unmitigated despotism, as this once free Republic would be, if either were to become the law of this land! Holden, when it suits him, can denounce tyranny and despotism which he never felt and never expected to feel, but where could he go to find such a despotism as that would be, administered by such as he is and his pliant tools? History fails to furnish such an example. But Providence has in store a better fate for a brave, magnanimous people, like the people of the South. We have yet a Constitution, at least in name, a President who feels the responsibility of his oath to enforce it, and a Supreme Court sworn to interpret, not to interpolate, it.

Universal Negro Suffrage.

About six months ago, we intimated very strongly, that Mr. Holden was getting ready to go over entirely to the Radicals, and would advocate universal negro suffrage. His endorsement of Mr. Stevens' bill, on yesterday, and what we hear of his speech to our colored people, settle the question, that he is now committed to universal negro suffrage. He has the audacity to say that all the Union men of the South will sustain Mr. Stevens' bill. We learn that Mr. Harris, of Rutherford and, we believe, Mr. Jenkins, of Gaston, emphatically declared during the Legislature, that they endorsed Mr. Holden's bill, except the negro suffrage part.—There are thousands of white men in the State who are unhesitatingly set down by Mr. Holden as loyal Union men, who will not endorse him now, or that bill either. Many of the most decided Union men in the State, all of them who have claims to respectability, will not endorse universal negro suffrage, how much soever they may desire the disfranchisement of the secessionists and war men.

LOYALTY is but a figment, when its interpretation and enforcement are left to the decisions of a dominant or fanatical party. The Southern people are as loyal, in the true sense of that term, as any portion of the Union. Obedience to law, and reverence and respect for the Constitution and those who administer it, are the only test of loyalty. Take this test, and our people, except the "Southern Loyalists," are truly loyal.

REV. DR. DEEMS.—The Metropolitan Record says that the Rev. Dr. Deems preaches every Sundays to a congregation in the Chapel of the University in the city of New York, and has also been engaged upon a course of lectures in that vicinity. It commends him to all Associations selecting lecturers.

STATE NEWS.

—The late snow storm seems to have been general throughout the State. Along the line of the Cape Fear, the stormed raged with great fury,—in some places the snow falling to a depth of four to six inches.

—The Wilmington Dispatch says that in Fayetteville the scarcity of money has put real estate down to such low figures that it will hardly sell for more than 50 per cent. of its taxable valuation in 1860. The prospect of an early completion of the Egypt connection is so great as to induce the belief that in the course of two or three years it will be worth ten times what it can be bought for now. Those who have money to invest would do well to examine the matter for themselves.

—The Wilmington Journal contains advertisements offering for sale three of the largest and best plantations in New Hanover County. One of them, the "Strawberry" Estate, on Rocky Point, is advertised in the Sentinel to-day.

—Gov. Vance is to repeat his Lecture "All about it," in Wilmington, shortly, for the benefit of the new Baptist Church now building.

—Eight prisoners effected their escape from New Hanover County jail, on Friday night last, through the windows of the first floor,—the locks of the cell-doors having been previously forced and the bars of the windows violently wrenched from their sockets.

—On Monday evening, as we learn from the Newbern Journal of Commerce, a numerous party of gentlemen assembled at the Gaston House, in that city, to listen to some fine music, by the Newbern Cornet Band, in honor of Ex-Gov. Vance. After repeited calls, the Gover nor appeared on the balcony and was introduced by his Honor, Mayor Washington, in few words, as "one too well known to require an introduction." When the applause had subsided, Gov. Vance expressed his appreciation of the compliment in one of his telling speeches.

DIABOLICAL OUTRAGE.—We learn that a most horrid atrocity was committed in Greene County last week. A respectable married lady was violated by a band of five negroes and three low white men, in the absence of her husband. They are all implicated, either as perpetrators or accomplices in the crime. The five negroes have been identified and committed to jail, but one of the white men only had been arrested up to our hearing of the report.

Outrages of a diabolical character seem to be confined to two or three of our Eastern Counties. Several murders have occurred in Greene County. We observe that "Southern Loyalists" pretend that these facts indicate the necessity of reconstruction. We venture the assertion that an investigation of the facts will show, that the guilty parties in these infamous acts, when found out, will prove to be in four out of every five cases, either colored vagabonds or of that class of white men who affect to be "Southern Loyalists." We challenge the investigation.

The X. P. G.

The Richmond Enquirer hurls the following broadside at the E. P. G. of North Carolina:

"Impudence is often made to supply the place of virtue, and to claim its rewards. It is by this rule that Holden, of North Carolina, makes his fortune. The exposures of his record which have been a hundred times made, by his cotemporaries of the North Carolina press, are such as to cover his press, course and pretensions, and himself, not only with odium, but with infamy. But it is curious to see how little he minds it. It is emphatically "water down a duck's back,"—a flap of the wings and the bird is dry. He is like the turtle which the Irishman buried in the mud, and was amazed to find his eyes, on opening, "as bright as fiver." He listens to the just and scathing denunciations of himself with the cool hardihood of the reprobate who, under similar treatment, asked to be "told something he didn't know!" The man who advocated the right of secession, who voted for secession, who sustained the war, who said he would vote in its support the State's "last dollar and last man,"—now talks daily of his countrymen as rebels and traitors, and urges the necessity of disfranchising them; and represents himself as a good Union man on no better ground than that, about 1864, he began to play a false part in the war, and to study how to embarrass the government he was still pretending to support; a treachery as base and an insensibility to shame as abject, as if a soldier of the Army of Northern Virginia had taken advantage of the confusion of battle to fire on Lee or Jackson, and were now to avow the boast of it as a ground of reward! A brazen front, a check that never blanches nor blushes, are inestimable to a knave in politics or roguery; and in these qualities Holden's extraordinary native gifts are equalled only by the diligence with which he has cultivated them."

Mrs. Tucker was suddenly smitten down in the midst of a busy life. Industry, and a constant personal attention to the duties of her own household, a keeper at home,—was a distinguishing trait in her character. For many years she had consecrated herself to Christ and was an acceptable member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. She possessed a kind heart, amiable in disposition and devoted as a wife, mother and friend. The summons came suddenly, but the writer believes she was ready, and her surviving friends have nothing to lament but their own loss. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." P.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Jan. 9, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The next session of Oxford Female Academy" (Rev. H. G. Hill, Principal,) begins Thursday, 24th. inst.

That pleasant and elegant cottage, on Hillsboro' street, adjoining Judge Saunders' residence, is offered for rent.

Thos. K. Thomas, Esq., of Louisburg, offers highly desirable property in that pleasant town for sale.

The next session of Mr. Jno. T. Womble's English and Classical School, in this city, commences on the 14th. inst.

W. W. Lane, Executor of Levin Lane, Dec'd, offer for sale that magnificent estate in New Hanover couty, known as "Strawberry," on Rocky Point. See advertisement.

THE FREEDMEN, generally, in this State and Virginia, seem to have celebrated yesterday. So far as we have heard, no serious disorder has anywhere occurred. In addition to the gentlemen mentioned on yesterday, as having addressed them, in this city, we learn that GOV. Bragg gave them some excellent practical advice. It is said that Mr. Holden also addressed them at great length. We hope he will publish his remarks, as the public are curious to see them.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The Board of Commissioners have appointed the following gentlemen to hold the Charter election on the 21st. inst., viz: Mayor's Box, James D. Royster; Western Ward, C. W. D. Hutchings; Middle Ward, A. N. McKimmon; Eastern Ward, W. D. Williams. The poll-holders are to recieve $3 each for their services.

THE NORTHERN MAIL failed again last evening. The Raleigh and Gaston train was up to time, as it always is, but brought nothing beyond Weldon. Everything is frozen up to the North of us,—so reports the telegraph.

REX HOSPITAL.—Messrs. Wm. H. Jones and Geo. T. Cooke have been recommended to the Supreme Court, by the City Commissioners, as suitable persons to be appointed Trustees of the Rex Hospital Fund, vice Wm. Peace, Dec'd., and George W. Haywood, removed from the State.

Mrs. Lacy's excellent school for young Ladies will be re-opened on the 14th. inst., at the residence of the Rev. Dr. Lacy, near the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute.

THE ADVENT of the New Year has caused many business alterations in our community. Old firms have gone to new stands, and new firms have dropped into old stands. As we take it for granted that all of these changes will, in due time, be advertised in the Sentinel, we shall not anticipate by individualizing them. We cannot refrain, however, from noticing a marked improvement on Fayetteville Street, near the Post Office. Messrs. Hesselbach and Fendt have erected two neat frame buildings, (we wish they were of brick,) in the heart of the square below the New Bank building. Both are occupied—one by Sparks & Tonoffski, Family Grocers, and the other by L. Rosenthal, Merchant. The two, added to Mahler's little gem Jewelry Store, make a decided change for the better in the appearance of that rather unsightly portion of the city.

THE LOVE BIRD.—This pretty little song, by Mrs. Downing, has been set to music, and published by Willig & Co., of Baltimore. If the music does justice to the words it will be a favorite. The song itself is one of the softest and sweetest in our language. We hope to see it and hear it soon, and judge for ourselves. A late Norfolk paper contains the following notice:

SOUTHERN GENIUS.—We have received a copy of the "Love Bird," a new song published by George Willig & Co., No. 1, North Charles St., Baltimore. The words of this beautiful lyric are from the graceful pen of Mrs. Fanny Murdaugh Downing, whose name is rapidly becoming a household word, wherever the literature of the South becomes a topic of conversation.

The music is by Miss Louisiana Wilson, who, before the war, was well known to a small but admiring circle of friends for the ease and brilliance of her compositions, many of which obtained an enviable reputation in the drawing rooms of her friends. Both Poet and Musician are natives of our sister city, and apart from the real merits of their performance, this simple fact should excite a remunerative local demand for their meritorious production. At this season when, with our Christmas compliments we make Christmas gifts, Romeo, who sighs like a furnace, should by all means avail himself of this beautiful song to disclose his romantic attachment to his beautiful Juliet. When we quote the refrain, "I love you, I love you," we feel satisfied that our suggestion will commend itself to the consideration of those to whom it is addressed.

The List of Pardons.

The Attorney-General is having prepared, for presentation to Congress, on its reassembling, a partial report in response to the resolution inquiring as to pardons. This report is intended to include all the persons pardoned under the first, third and eighth exceptions of the amnesty proclamation, which include all those who were military officers in the Confederate service above the rank of Colonel, those who had been graduates of West Point, and those who were members of the Federal Congress at the time of secession, or who were members of the Confederate Congress. This list will be found astonishingly small, and the recommendations for the pardon issued will be found to comprise, in almost every case, many of the leading members of the present Congress, and prominent Republican editors and politicians.

The report of the mass of the cases will be so voluminous that an increased clerical force will be required in the Attorney-General's office for its preparation.

FOR RENT.

A Neat Cottage, with shady yard, fine well of water and good garden. Location South Eastern portion of Raleigh on Smithfield Road. Terms moderate.

RICHMOND, Jan. 1, P. M.

The snow and ice prevent the running of the street cars.

Foreign.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1, P. M.

We have European news per Steamer. Bills for the confederation of the British American provinces have been prepared for the next Parliament.

Napoleon's health is now good.

The chief points of Italy's proposition to the Pope make Florence the capital of Italy,—the Cardinals to be Princes of the Kingdom, with salaries guarantied, and the inhabitants of Rome to vote whether they will be subjects of Italy or the Pope. Rome remains a free city under the absolute control of the Pope. The Pope is to crown Victor Emanuel King of Italy at Florence. This arrangement is only binding during the present Pope's life.

It is asserted that the leading European powers, except Russia, have resolved to protect the Holy See.

The French Embassador has declared that France will hold Italy responsible for the violation of the Pope's temporal power.

The Forthcoming Tariff Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.

The tariff report of the Committee will be presented to the Senate on Thursday next. It may be said, on the best authority, that the statements heretofore published, purporting to give the substance of this report, are wholly fallacious, and very far from the facts. The report cannot be styled a free-trade report, as it recommends an increase of the tariff, wherever it can be done. It is simply a plain and lucid common-sense statement of the results of patient and intelligent investigation into the condition of our industrial affairs, and the reason for the imposition of the tariff, and the effects of certain rates of tariff, upon certain classes of commodities.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast supersceding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: "We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such; and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, I'm thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HAZVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 7th Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my baby for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE,

IN FULL OPERATION.

THIS TIME-HONORED INSTITUTION IS ONCE more in successful operation, with a FULL CORPS OF PROFESSORS. The chairs of the several schools are filled by able and experienced men. There are five literary and scientific schools, viz—of ANCIENT LANGUAGES, MATHEMATICS, CHEMISTRY and NATURAL PHILOSOPHY, MORAL PHILOSOPHY and MODERN LANGUAGES. In addition to the above the Board of Trustees have established a school of Commercial Science, with the view of giving to the young men of the country a Business Education.

To graduates in all these schools, Diplomas are granted, and the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts are conferred upon students who accomplish a certain course. The high grade of scholarship formerly required is still maintained. We have a full Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus for the illustration of the subjects taught.

The location of the College is unsurpassed for health and geniality. It is situated midway between the mountains and the seaboard; and during a career of thirty-three years, and with thousands of young men in attendance, there has never been a death arising from malaria or other local cause. We profess to educate you [illegible] not only mentally and morally but physically.

BOARD [illegible] TEEN DOLLARS PER MONTH.

Tuition from $40 to $90, according to the number of schools attended. $250 will cover expenses of board, tickets for three schools, matriculation and contingent fees for ten months.

Rooms in the College free of charge, but the student provides his own furniture, fuel and lights.—Young men who are preparing for the ministry and those disabled by the late war who are unable to pay their tuition, will be allowed to attend any or all of the schools free of charge.

This College is situated near Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg county, Va.

Arrangements are made to transport students from Ridgway Depot, on the Raleigh and Weldon Railroad, whilst a conveyance leaves Roanoke station on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and the Wolf Trap Depot, on the same road, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

We solicit a liberal patronage from Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, from the West, South and Southwest.

Students will be received at any time. The second term will commence on the 6th. day of February next. Young men will be received and prepared for the Colleges proper.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

For the Sentinel.

LENT, NOT GIVEN.

Lent, not given! This fair, cherished flower,
A precious loan from Heaven, only came,
To be your solace for one brief, sweet hour,—
Then angels gently bore him "home again."

He was too lovely for this darkened earth,
And its sad shadow o'er his beauty fell;
He closed his eyes, those eyes so full of mirth,
Folded his dimpled hands, and left you. It was well.

God let him wander here, like Noah's dove,
To cheer your heart, so sad, so very lone;
He called him back, because his tender love
Beheld a gathering cloud before him loom.

He took the bud, to save the opening flower
From mildew, rust and every withering blight,
Transplanted now to God's own garden bower,
It blossoms there, in realms of cloudless light.

Look! look! beyond the vail, poor suffering one,
That hides your darling from your longing gaze,
Behold him there his little journey done,
And he at peace. Oh! give the Father praise.

Behold his form,—how lovely he appears!
Clad in his blood washed robes of spotless white;
Behold his golden crown, and dry your tears.
Such bitter drops may dim this vision bright.

He needs your care no more in that glad home,
God's loving hale circles his young head;
There waiting for you, never thence to roam,
He lives in Heaven, the one you mourn as dead.

One treasure less you have on earth to love,
One treasure more to lure you to the skies;
Hearts, loving hearts, still throng for you above,
Your pathway's brightened still by angel eyes.

Death's mystic stream, whose rolling waters flow
Radiant and clear, when Jesus stands beside,
Alone divides you from that happy shore,
From rest, from joy, from him you think has died.

Your baby, always, as when last you prest,
A mother's kiss upon his living brow,
Your babe, he still will be, when to your breast
You clasp, in Heaven, the child you seek for now.

A little while, earth's burden laid aside
Rest, for the weary one, will then be given;
Sweet the blest meeting, past Death's dwelling tide,
When that dear loan shall be restored in Heaven.

The Charity of Cowards.

Two ladies, who are officers of the Southern Orphans' Relief Association, have recently visited several of the Northern cities, and have solicited contributions for the relief of the little sufferers in the South who have been orphaned and left destitute by the war. It is gratifying to be able to state that in this city and elsewhere the character of the applicants, and especially the charity they advocated, were such as to result in liberal donations of money and other necessary articles. These ladies applied for subscriptions in Chicago, among others to the proprietors of the Chicago Republican, the leading disunion sheet of that city. The response is annexed:

OFFICE CHICAGO REPUBLICAN,
Chicago, Dec. 1, 1866.

Mrs. B. A. F. Mears, Treasurer, S. O. R. A.;
Mrs. V. Bayley, Acting Sec. S. O. R. A.:

ESTEEMED LADIES:—In response to your request for a contribution to build houses for the destitute children of deceased Confederate soldiers, please find enclosed $500 in currency of the deceased Confederacy. You say that "the shrinking delicacy and pride of the Southern people forbid the idea of conducting the establishment upon the principle or plan of ordinary charity." We cordially coincide with this policy, and, as ordinary charities are supported by "greenbacks," you will appreciate that lofty sense of chivalric propriety which leads us to contribute to the support of your enterprise a currency which is opposed in all respects to greenbacks. Yours, respectfully,

CHICAGO REPUBLICAN COMPANY.

This is simply inhuman. These women ask for bread and receive in return a stone, which is not merely offered but actually thrown at them with all the malignity that Radical rancor can inspire. From the representatives of a party which claims all the morality and all the decency of the country, it is hardly to be expected that a request from charitable women, for the relief of starving children, should not only be refused, but the refusal be accompanied with insult. But so it is; and it is only the latest illustration of that Radical vindictiveness that is as cowardly as it is virulent, and which wars only upon women and children. It is the kind of warfare that has pre-eminently exhibited itself since peace closed the struggle of four years; the valor that, when the war was in progress, raked the coasts of the Southern States, from Norfolk to New Orleans, for negro substitutes; and that now, long after the South has laid down its arms, proposes to organize Torch-and-Turpentine brigades to walk over the course where other armies fought their way, to burn and devastate peaceful communities.—It is the valor of venom, which is only valiant when the foe is unarmed, and its grandest victories are over weak women and helpless children.

A Paris, Kentucky, correspondent of the Cincinnati Times writes concerning that place:

A humorous lecturer, who came here recently, sent his agent on a couple of days ahead to smooth his way. On his arrival he found Mr. Agent most thoroughly Bourbonized. Whether or not there is "a Bourbon among us," he had certainly been among a good deal of Bourbon. The following dialogue ensued between lecturer and agent:

Lecturer—"What are the prospects?"
Agent—"Splen'id prospects."
Lecturer—"What sort of a house do you reckon we'll have?"
Agent—"(hic) Full."
Lecturer—"About how full?"
Agent—"(hic) Full'n tick."
Lecturer—"Do you think the people here appreciate humor?"
Agent—"Preshate humor? Well if as'n feller to drink every fif'n minutes is preshation 'f humor, they've (hic) got it!"

A Richmond paper states that the votes recently taken in seventeen Conferences of the M. E. Church, South, which have been heard from, foot up as follows:

For changing the name of the Church to Episcopal Methodist Church, 775; against it, 364.

For lay delegation, 813; against it, 326.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay.
